Day 1: Arrival in Pylos

Costa Navarino rests on a breathtaking stretch of sandy beach along the coast of the Ionian Sea. Messinia enjoys an excellent climate, warm summers and mild winters. Blue skies, sunny days and pleasant temperatures make this region an ideal year round destination. The Costa Navarino philosophy is driven by a genuine desire to promote Messinia while preserving its natural beauty and heritage. Inspired by old Messinian mansions, the resort's low-rise villa clusters use natural stone and local design elements to create a motif in perfect harmony with the virgin sandy beach and pristine hillside landscape. After your arrival and trip you will spend the afternoon relaxing and enjoying the hotel's amenities and beach.

Day 2: Guided tour of Pylos

In the morning you will visit Pylos for a guided tour of the city, Nestors' Palace and Pylos Castle. Pylos is a small, picturesque, seafront town built in 1828 by the army of General Maison, that today counts 2.104 inhabitants. It was the Ottomans who begun to construct the castle of Pylos (Niokastro) in 1573. It was named "Niokastro" (new castle), in contrast to the previous castle of Koryfassio known as Paliokastro or Palio Navarino (old castle), which overlooked the northern entrance and the old harbor. The Upper Englianos Mycenaean palace, better known as Nestor's Palace, is the only Mycenaean palace that has been preserved in such good condition. It is located 4 km south of Chora in Messinia. In the afternoon you will be back to the hotel and spend the rest of the day at leisure.

Day 3: Day trip to Ancient Olympia

Olympia is dedicated to Zeus, the father of the gods, it sprawls over the southwest foot of Mount Kronios, at the confluence of the Alpheios and the Kladeos rivers, in a lush, green landscape. Its fame rests upon the Olympic Games, the greatest national festival and a highly prestigious one world-wide, which was held every four years to honor Zeus.
